Boca Raton Realtor® to Be Installed as Secretary of Florida's Largest Professional Association

ORLANDO, Fla., December 2023 – Jeffrey Levine, broker-associate with Keller Williams Realty Services in Boca Raton, will be installed in January as secretary of Florida Realtors®, the state's largest professional trade association with more than 238,000 members. "We have a strong leadership team that is deeply committed to supporting our members and their clients," he said.

Looking ahead to 2024, Levine expect a healthy market with many opportunities for primary and vacation home buyers and sellers, as well as commercial investors. "Our high quality of life, combined with financial advantages like low taxes will continue to attract buyers from throughout the country and around the world," said Levine, who is active in residential brokerage.

A leader in regional, state and national real estate associations, Levine is a member of Broward, Palm Beaches & St. Lucie Realtors®, serving as 2019 president. He has been a director and committee leader for the state association and has served in the board of the National Association of Realtors®.

As secretary for Florida Realtors®, Levine will focus on helping Realtors® deliver the highest level of service to their clients and communities through information, advocacy and support programs. "We need to adhere to the highest standards of our profession and demonstrate the value we provide to our customers in every transaction," he said.

Levine added that Florida's Realtors® are dedicated to supporting the state's housing market and protecting private property rights. "Our members are powerful advocates for their communities," he said. "Every day they volunteer for worthy causes and strive to make things better for everyone."
