Central Florida Realtor® to Be Installed as President-Elect of Florida's Largest Professional Association

ORLANDO, Fla., December 2023 – Tim Weisheyer, broker-owner of Dream Builders Realty in Celebration, will be installed in January as president-elect of Florida Realtors®, the state's largest professional trade association with more than 238,000 members. "We have a great leadership team that is deeply committed to supporting our members and the work they do throughout the state," he said.

Looking ahead to 2024, Weisheyer expects strong demand for real estate in Central Florida, as well as other regions around the state. "People will continue moving to Florida, and demand for all types of housing and commercial assets across the state will remain strong," said Weisheyer, who is active in both residential and commercial brokerage, as well as real estate development.

A leader in regional, state and national real estate associations, Weisheyer was the president of the Osceola County Association of Realtors® in 2011 and was recently awarded the Lifetime Achievement Award for extensive work and lasting impact spanning more than two decades. He has been recognized for his service and leadership on the local, state and national levels, including being inducted into the National Association of Realtors® (NAR) Hall of Fame. As a former elected official, Weisheyer is also a recognized leader in education at all levels and served as president of the Florida School Boards Association.

As president-elect of the state association, Weisheyer will focus on helping Realtors® deliver the highest level of service to their customers, clients and the communities they serve through information, advocacy and support for their business success. "We will continue to adhere to the highest standards of our profession and clearly demonstrate the value we provide to our customers in every transaction," he said.

Weisheyer added that Florida's Realtors® are dedicated to supporting the state's robust housing market and protecting private property rights at all levels. "Every day, our members are making a positive impact on their communities and our country," he said. "We are the voice for real estate in Florida and work tirelessly to support our members, the lives of our neighbors and the beautiful state we call home."

Florida Realtors® serves as the voice for real estate in Florida. It provides programs, services, continuing education, research and legislative representation to its more than 238,000 members in 51 boards/associations.
